STORM-SWEPT SOUTH

A Tornado Plays Havoc in Mississippi and Kills Several People.

Much Damage to Property—A Railroad Train Struck by the Cyclone.

HEAVY LOSSES IN MANY PLACES

Hazlehurst, Miss., March 13.—A terrific cyclone passed through the southern end of Copiah and the northern end of Lincoln counties yesterday. Four or five persons were killed outright and many more seriously injured at the village of Montgomery, five miles south of Wesson, on the Illinois Central railroad. Many residences are reported to have been completely destroyed. The Illinois Central camp located there was blown away, and three negroes reported killed, besides a number of mules. The southbound passenger train, No. 1, was caught in the cyclone near Montgomery and passengers say nearly every window was blown out, and the train was brought to a standstill, being unable to proceed further on account of trees and telegraph poles and wires across the track. The passengers were almost panic stricken, the train being in the territory of the fatal Wesson and Beauregard cyclone, which occurred about eighteen years ago the middle of April. Several miles east of Wesson, in Copiah county, several residences were blown away, and one person reported killed and many injured. This place was dead to the world up to 1 p. m. today, two miles of wires being down on both sides. The track has been cleared and telegraph communications again received.

AT WESSON.

Wesson, Miss., March 13.—A cyclone crossed the railroad four miles south and passed two miles east of here yesterday morning about 6 o'clock. It was about one-half mile wide. One negro man was killed and several wounded at the construction camp on the railroad. Mrs. Ike Smith, Mrs. Borchillon and G. A. Newsome were wounded. The houses were completely ruined; timber fences and houses in its wake were blown down. The loss of property was large. Fields were left without any fences around them. Drs. Little and Rowan of this city went to the scene as soon as they received the news.

TRAIN IN THE CYCLONE.

New Orleans, La., March 13.—Train No. 1, the Chicago limited, pulled into New Orleans over the Illinois Central yesterday a veritable wreck, and something over an hour late. The train was in charge of Conductor C. C. Betz, and had aboard 100 passengers. There was hardly a whole window pane on any one of the cars, and passengers, as they disembarked, showed plainly the effects of a frightful experience.

The dilapidated condition of the train and the fright of the passengers was explained when it was learned that the travelers had run into a well developed cyclone about two miles north of Wesson, Miss., and about 135 miles north of New Orleans. The engineer saw the storm coming, according to the report of Conductor Betz, and slowed down. As he did so the tornado hit the train. Every window on the side from which the wind came, the west, was smashed in, and the sleeping passengers were awakened in the wildest fear. They were covered with shattered glass and breathless from the force of the hurricane. Beside the track trees were being leveled and telegraph poles and wires being twisted in an awful mass of wreckage.

By a miracle not a single passenger was injured to any serious extent. They were all frightened out of their wits, however, and glad enough to have escaped alive.

NEAR TEXARKANA.

Texarkana, March 13.—A cyclone struck New Boston, a town of a thousand inhabitants, twenty miles west of here, last night and did a large amount of damage. The Methodist church, opera house and several dwellings were demolished and many other lives from their foundations. The farm of a man named Newton a mile from the town was blown down and crushed in the ruins. His family succeeded in escaping without injury.

IN TEXAS.

Houston, Tex., March 13.—Reports from Tuesday's rain and wind storm show considerable damage done at various places. About four-fifths of the state was covered by the rain, the agricultural section getting a precipitation. At Houston twenty small houses were wrecked at a loss of $15,000. Emanuel White, colored, was crushed to death and half a dozen others were hurt, none seriously.

Mrs. Chas. Dallam, of Henderson, was killed at noon today after a fall to the family of Mr. Muscoe Bur-

Mrs. Randolph Brings Action For Divorce and Alimony.

Alleges Cruel Treatment—Small Suits Brought Today in Circuit Court.

One of the most sensational divorce suits filed in the circuit court for some time was filed this morning by Attorney Lightfoot and Yonta for Mrs. Ida Randolph, wife of D. W. Randolph, the grocer, of Second street.

The petition states that last Sunday the defendant, D. W. Randolph, knocked her down and choked her. She charges cruelty for the action and asks for an absolute divorce and alimony, and the custody of the three children, Viola, age 17; Byron, age 15 and Marie, age 10. She also asked for an attachment on the defendant's property to satisfy any judgment she may obtain.

Nicholas Gantner of Cincinnati, a tobacco dealer, filed a suit through Attorney Eton against M. Rosenblatt, the local cigar man, for a balance of $214.15 on a bill of goods.

Ed Lucas, for the use and benefit of Gus Jones, sued William Brown to force a deed to three lots of ground on Murray avenue.

Joe Wren, administrator of Ella Knott, sued W. N. Grant for $73.25, the face of a note and asks for the enforcement of a lien to satisfy the judgment.

R. H. Walters sued his wife, Mattie B. Walters, for divorce, giving abandonment his grounds. They were married in Illinois in 1900 and separated during that year in September.

SUDDEN DEATH

OF BROTHER CHARLES, OF MANTHAN COLLEGE, A WIDELY KNOWN CATHOLIC EDUCATOR.

New York, March 13.—Brother Charles, president of Manhattan college, and one of the best known educators in the Catholic church of America, is dead from pneumonia at the institution of which he was the head. Only a few days ago he apparently was enjoying the best of health. He went a week ago last Sunday morning to attend the services in St. Patrick's Cathedral, where he contracted a severe cold, which developed into pneumonia.

Brother Charles was born in Paterson, N. J., forty-seven years ago. He was chosen president of the college two years ago.

RELEASED HIM.

Evansville, Ind., March 13.—The case of Joseph A. Reynolds, charged with kidnapping his little daughter, aged six years, in Green county, Kentucky, was tried before a justice of the peace in Booneville, Ind. The court released Reynolds on the ground that under the Kentucky law a parent could not be charged with kidnapping his own child.

TWO BLAZES

BUT LITTLE DAMAGE RESULTED IN EITHER INSTANCE.

The fire departments were called out twice today to extinguish small fires in the southern portion of the city.

The first run was made to a frame owned by Mark Lydon and situated at 523 South Eighth street. The roof had caught from a spark and little damage was done.

Shortly after noon the departments were again called out, this time to the two story frame owned by Alex Drury near Sixth and Tennessee streets. A portion of the roof was burned, but the damage is covered by insurance.

BOY KICKED BY A HORSE.

A small newsboy named Roberts was kicked in the right leg yesterday afternoon late by Dr. Cowgill's horse which was standing in front of the doctor's office on Broadway. The boy had been running about playing and had gotten too near the animal. The leg was bruised badly but no bones were broken. Dr. Phil Stewart dressed the limb.

MARRIAGE IN MARSHALL.

Rev. Lorenzo V. Henson, of near Olive, and Miss Nannie Gold, of near Fair Dealing, Marshall county, were married yesterday. Both are well known, the groom being a Baptist minister.

FEARS WERE GROUNDFLESS.

London, March 13.—General Methuen, who was captured and severely wounded by General De Laere March 10, has been released and is expected to arrive in Klerks'camp, South-west Transvaal, today.

KILLED BY A TREE.

Mayfield, March 13.—Frank Errington, a well known farmer of near Pilot Oak, was killed by a tree he had just cut down. He leaves a wife and four children.

IN THE LEGISLATURE

Will Be a Felony to Steal Electric Power in Kentucky—Game Law.

The House Reconsiders the Sewer and Sidewalk Bill and Passes It.

A BANK ROBBERY IN ILLINOIS

IN THE LEGISLATURE.

Frankfort, Ky., March 13.—Senator Ferguson of McCracken this morning secured the unanimous consent of the senate to bring the bill providing a penalty for stealing electric power. The bill was adopted.

Senator Tobin called up the bill providing for the killing of quail for the purpose of sale for two years, and requiring non-residents to pay a license of $25 to hunt game in the state, which was adopted and sent to the governor for his approval.

The house reconsidered the action it took yesterday afternoon killing the bills providing for building sewers and sidewalks in fourth class cities, and adopted both measures. The bill provides that sewers and sidewalks shall be built in the discretion of the city council at the expense of the abutting property owners.

The house killed the Reed bill providing that all primary elections be held between April 1st and May 5th. Joliet, Ill., March 13.—Robbers broke into the exchange bank nine miles west of here and wrecked the safe with dynamite and secured between $2,000 and $3,000 in cash. The robbers took a hand car on the Rock Island road and escaped.

COMMON LAW MARRIAGE

INVALID IN VIRGINIA ACCORDING TO THE STATE SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS.

Richmond, Va., March 13.—In the case of Field vs. Davis, appealed from the circuit court of Green county, the state supreme court of appeals today handed down an opinion affirming the lower court's decision and holding that a common law marriage in Virginia is invalid. The question presented in this case for the first time before the court was whether a contract entered into between a man and woman by which they mutually agreed to become husband and wife, without any celebration and without license, constituted a valid marriage in this state, and entitled the woman to dower interest from the time the agreement was made. The opinion is written by Judge Cardwell.

MUCH BUILDING.

PRETTY WEATHER ENABLES WORKMEN TO MAKE GREAT PROGRESS.

Work is progressing rapidly on the Smith building at Second and Broadway, the buildings on lower Broadway and the Bethshares building near Third and Broadway. The Harbour building is nearing completion, the walls being up, and it is going to be one of the largest and most imposing edifices in the city.

The Paducah Textile company's new building in Mechanicsburg is nearing completion, and the roof is now being placed on. It is expected that the concern will be in operation by the 24th inst.

The brick addition to the Famous Pants factory on North Eighth street has been commenced by Contractor Lockwood.

The addition to the St. Nicholas hotel will cost about $1800, and will be a great improvement.

WILL ACCEPT.

Pekin, March 13.—At a meeting of the ministers of the powers it was decided that the banker's commission offered in refusing to accept the February installment of the Chinese indemnity and the commission was advised to devise means to accept the Chinese tenders. The ministers were unable to agree on a plan to reduce the claims of the powers where these are in excess of their pro rata share of the indemnity.

Mr. W. Y. Kirkpatrick of 402 South Tenth street is seriously ill.

MARIA CHRISTINA, QUEEN REGENT OF SPAIN.

Within a few weeks the regency of this troubled Austrian lady will cease in Spain, for on May 17 the young king will reach the age of sixteen and will nominally assume the reins of government. From present prospects his reign will be a stormy one.

MANY PERISH IN STEAMBOAT DISASTER.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 13.—The Vicksburg and Davis Bend packet City of Providence, was caught in a storm yesterday at Ionin, the lake at Davis Bend. The boat being light, capsized. Captain Will Cassidy, master of the boat, and Clyde Scott, representing the Vicksburg oil mills; Dr. Lancaster, a prominent physician near Palmyra, and Head Engineer Roup, were drowned, together with thirteen of the negro deck crew and passengers.

Captains Cassidy and Scott both have families here. The tug Joe Seay has gone to the scene to secure the bodies.

Today's reports show that the dead are:

Whites—Will C. Cassidy, Vicksburg, master; May Roup, Cincinnati, engineer; E. Clyde Scott, Vicksburg, passenger; Dr. N. A. Lancaster, Louisiana, passenger.

Colored—George Lamb, cook; Harrison Gelber, cabin boy; Bettie Hunter, chambermaid; Joe Neal, Ike Lewis, Tom Scott, Whit Burns, six unknown roustabouts; Minnie Taylor, Joe Christian, passenger; Ben Richardson, passenger.

The Providence was built at Lyons, La., in 1886 and had been in the trade here for some years; was about 100 tons burthen, and was considered one of the fastest stern wheelers on the lower river.

CALLED SESSION.

Council Meets Tonight to Consider River Front Property.

Claimed That Armour's New Building is on Part of the City's Property.

Mayor Yeiser has called a meeting of the city council for tonight to take up the matter of alleged encroachment of the Armour company's new building on city property on First and Broadway.

It is claimed that the wall of the new warehouse next to the river is three and a half feet over on city property. It was first six feet and a half, Mayor Yeiser stated this morning, but was moved back.

He stated that so far as he could learn the contractors or the railroad company who had the survey made informed the engineer that the company owned sixty-six feet, and the engineer took his word for it, making the survey on this supposition, and driving he stakes on the city's property as a result.

It is not known what the council will do, whether it will agree to sell the small strip or require the contractor to tear down that portion of the wall already built, which is above the first story.

RUSSIANS APOLOGIZE.

Washington, March 13.—It is stated that the trouble growing out of the collision between Russian soldiers and American sailors of the United States steamer Vicksburg at Newchwang has been settled satisfactorily, apologies having been made by the Russian commandant at that port to Captain Barry, the commander of the Vicksburg.

SOME BIG BOATS

The DeKoven Will Be Repaired Here After the Bertram is Finished.

The Illinois Central Will Repair Many of Its Transfer Boats in Paducah.

HAVE TO BE MADE HEAVIER

Inspector P. W. Hollingsworth of Floating Stock for the Illinois Central has returned from Missouri and Arkansas, where he went to locate some new inclines for the road. At Ospe Girardeau a sandbar has about shut off one of the inclines, and it will have to be located elsewhere.

A new incline, on account of increasing business, will have to be located near Helena, Ark., and the place selected by Captain Hollingsworth is at Glendale, Miss., across the river from Helena. Work will begin on it as soon as possible.

It will be of considerable interest to the steamboat men of Paducah to learn that the Illinois Central will doubtless have most of the repairs on its floating stock done in Paducah. The Bertram is now on the ways and will be thoroughly overhauled. The work has progressed well and will probably be completed in two weeks.

The DeKoven will then be placed on the ways and given complete repairs. This transfer steamer is the one at Evansville. In each instance many thousands of dollars will be spent for the work. The Illinois Central, as rapidly as it can be done, will have to repair all of its transfer boats, because the new freight cars of increased capacity are much heavier than the old ones and the boats have to be thoroughly changed to make them conform to the new requirements.

IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

HUCKSTERS CANNOT BE COMPELLED TO PAY EXCESSIVE LICENSE.

There were but three cases in the police court this morning. Judge Sanders rendered a decision in the case against Sam Cohen, a huckster charged with violation of ordinance by refusing to pay the $2 a day required by ordinance. A demurrer was entered to the charge, it being claimed that the law was unconstitutional, and the court sustained the demurrer, dismissing the warrant. A former ordinance requiring a license of $25 a day was knocked out some time ago.

A breach of the peace case against Walter Shannon and Ellen Hale, alias Hile, was continued and the woman was released on her own recognizance.

The house breaking case against Annie Hendrick and Robert White, colored, charged with committing the Durret burglary and assault several weeks ago, was dismissed, there being insufficient evidence to sustain the charge.

HARRIS' COURT

THE BONDSMAN MUST PAY THE AMOUNT OF THE FINE.

The Scott case is on trial in Justice Harris' court this afternoon. Scott was recently arrested for beating a board bill and Dan Simon went his bond of $50 Scott appeared for trial and was fined $25 which he did not pay. He was recognized after being fined and skipped out and the court is trying to make Mr. Simon pay the amount. It is claimed by the attorney of the defendant that the obligation of the bondsman ended when the trial was finished and that he should not be made to pay the money but the court decided that the bond held good until the money was paid over, as the contract entered into with the bondsman read that way.

The case of Dr. Pendley against Engineer Barker, of the water works, snit on alleged $30 doctor's bill, is on trial also in that court.

STOLE EX-GOVERNOR HOGG'S WATCH.

New York, March 13. Jose Dias Alvarez, a young Mexican, has pleaded guilty to stealing the $300 gold watch of Former Governor Hogg of Texas on October 21st in the Waldorf Astoria.

Connell for Alvarez said the defendant came from Mexico with some money and stayed at the Waldorf. He was in the elevator one day with Governor Hogg and took his watch.

Alvarez was sentenced to the Elmira reformatory.

COLONEL JOUETT HENRY HERE.
Colonel Jouett Henry of Hopkinsville, the well known state guard officer who mustered in Company K during the Spanish-American war, is in the city on business. Colonel Henry is a prominent Elk and has many friends in Paducah who are always glad to see him.

BIG ATTENDANCE.

Elks Will Hold Their Regular Meeting This Evening.

New Paraphernalia Arrived—Two Candidates—Carnival News.

The Elks will meet this evening in regular session, and it is desired that a large crowd attend. The new paraphernalia ordered some time ago by the lodge, and costing about $100, arrived today, and will be used for the first time tonight. There will be two candidates for initiation, and the attendance will likely be large.

Additional nominations will also be made this evening for the various lodge offices to be filled at the annual election the last of the month. Quite a number were nominated last Thursday.

The soliciting committee is meeting with liberal responses wherever it goes. The merchants are desirous of making the carnival a go, and are donating liberally.

Mr. J. Stoddard Robertson, local agent for the Wilcox stamp factory, has ordered the twenty special police stars, and they are expected shortly. Mr. James E. Robertson is chairman of the police committee, and has decided that during the carnival the special officers shall report at headquarters twice a day. Men will be on duty day and night to protect all property, and preserve order.

The county store committee is receiving more communications notifying it that donations will be made for the carnival, and many others are expected.

The music committee last night decided on employing Dean's band to furnish music for the carnival. This band is about as good as any to be found in this part of the country, and is in excellent trim.

Messrs. B. Welle and Sons have received from a big umbrella firm in the East three fine umbrellas, mounted in sterling silver, with handsome Elk head handles, as a donation for the country store. They have also received some fine neckwear, and has the promise of many other things.

MARRIED IN EVANSVILLE.

MISS ALMA REIS AND MR. SYDNEY MITCHELL WED LAST EVENING.

Miss Alma Reis, a popular young lady of Evansville, who has often visited Paducah, and Mr. Sydney Mitchell of Memphis were married last evening at the bride's home in Evansville. An Evansville dispatch says: "Miss Alma Reis, the beautiful daughter of Henry Reis, cashier of the Old National bank, was married this evening to Sydney Mitchell of Memphis, at the home of the bride's parents. It was a beautiful home wedding. The officiating clergyman was Rev. J. L. Marquis of Grace Presbyterian church."

"The house was filled with the society people of the city, of which Miss Reis has been a prominent figure for several years. Miss Reis was the maid of honor, but the groom was not attended. A luncheon was served after the nuptials, when the young couple left on a brief honeymoon to St. Louis. They will be at home in Memphis after April 30."

"Mr. Mitchell is the son of the late B. F. Mitchell, one of the prominent railroad men of this city, and was himself a valued employee of the Illinois Central while in this city. His bride is a beautiful brunette and a prominent young society belle."

BOILER EXPLODED.

SAM BURTON, AN ENGINEER, IS HORRIBLY MANGLED.

Tiptonville, March 13.—The boiler at the sawmill of B. W. Fleming, at Blue Bank, burst and Sam Burton, the engineer, was instantly killed. His body being blown almost entirely away. Only four small pieces of the body were found, and these were picked up several yards from the scene of the explosion. Tom Willis, another employee, of the mill, was injured by flying timbers, but his injuries will not prove fatal. The mill property was wrecked. Mr. Burton was a resident of Horabek, Ohio county, and leaves a wife and three children.

DEATH IN GRAVES.

Mayfield, March 13.—Mr. U. J. Bennett, an old and influential citizen, died at his home two miles east of the city at the age of eighty-five years, of old age. Mr. Bennett was the father of Messrs. Henry, Rob and John Bennett and was quite well thought of.

NEW CITY HOSPITAL

Medical and Surgical Society Petitions Council for a New Hospital.

It is Suggested That a Sanitarium For Pay Patients Be Added to the Hospital.

WHAT THE DOCTORS DID LAST NIGHT

The Paducah Medical and Surgical Society met last night in the office of Dr. Lillard Sanders and took the preliminary steps to secure a new and up-to-date city hospital, something that the city has needed for the past thirty years.

The doctors have been considering this move for some time and will have an able champion in the city council in the person of Dr. J. G. Brooks, who has been vainly attempting to secure such hospital for many years.

The following resolution, which speaks for itself, was adopted unanimously when a vote was taken:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CITY HOSPITAL

Whereas: There is not, in our otherwise up-to-date city, any adequate city hospital, wherein the indigent poor, "whom we have with us always," may receive the proper care and attention, nor is there any hospital or sanitarium whose doors are open WITHOUT RESTRICTION to those who have the means to pay for such attention, and believing that such an institution is necessary to keep pace with the progress of our beloved city, and further believing such an institution would be a source of revenue to our city.

Therefore, Be it resolved, by the Paducah Medical and Surgical Society, and said society does hereby petition the Honorable City Council, which are soon to be the Board of Aldermen, to erect a commodious building with space sufficient, to take care of the city's poor, and in addition thereto a number of rooms which may be occupied by patients who shall pay an amount to be fixed by you, or a board of control, per week for said room, and for nursing and board; all of which shall go into the treasury of the city of Paducah. And we hereby pledge to the council, our hearty support in said enterprise, and in the treatment of the city's patients.

J. G. BROOKS, M. D.
J. R. COLEMAN, M. D.
J. T. REDDICK, M. D.
Committee.

Dr. Sanders had a paper relating to a health certificate being required of persons entering into a marriage contract, which he read and which was approved by the doctors present.

The paper suggested that persons entering into the marriage state should be forced to produce a health certificate from some reputable physician.

If the doctors agree to advocate the law, a resolution will be drawn up and passed to have the matter placed before the next legislature and made a law.

There was a good attendance at the meeting last night and it was one of the most interesting meetings ever held. The doctors have been doing much good work lately and no one has the interests of the city more at heart.

FINE SERMONS

PREACHED LAST EVENING AT FIRST CHRISTIAN AND BROADWAY METHODIST REVIVALS.

Large crowds and a deepening interest have marked the revival services at the First Christian church each evening. Rev. F. G. Tyrrell is making a fine impression as an eloquent speaker. His sermon last evening was on "The Larger Salvation," and dealt with it as a progressive work from beginning in forgiveness on through the various stages of methods of development, for the Gospel is a system of culture that fits us for a happy entry into Heaven, where Salvation finds its completion.

The song service is a very delightful feature of each service.

Dr. G. W. Briggs preached very eloquently on "The Hamlet of the Gospel" last evening at the Broadway Methodist church. There was an addition to the church last night. The services at this church have been discontinued until after Sunday.

TAXATION OF CAPITAL.

(Louisville Post.)

The Evening Post yesterday called attention to the good work done by the legislature in the defeat of various measures designed for the restraint of the citizen in making contracts, in investing money and in earning a living. We believe that the purpose of the Kentucky legislature is to give effect to public opinion in the state.

We believe that public opinion in Kentucky wishes to see our laws protect labor, deal justly with capital and encourage the development of the natural resources of the state.

During the discussions in the house,

many of the worst features of the revenue bill have been stricken out, but there is enough mischief in the bill as it stands today to cause the downfall of a stronger party than the Democratic party. There are numerous tax provisions from which the revenue must be slight, but from which the unpleasant will be great, and it is always a mistake in politics to seek out new avenues of taxation unless the demand for revenue is imperative.

In the face of a great emergency caused by widespread disaster or war, a free people will submit uncomplainingly to almost any scheme of taxation, but when the necessity passes discontent will arise.

If labor is to be employed, if the mineral resources of Kentucky are to be developed, if traffic on the roads is to increase and new roads built, we must demonstrate to the world of capital that Kentucky has no unfriendly feeling to investors, and that while it is not offering bonuses and subsidies, it offers them something better than either, and that is impartial justice and equal privilege before the law.

All over the state of Kentucky we see a new spirit of energy and enterprise. The oil fields of Kentucky are attracting the attention of the whole country. Hundreds of prospectors are in the state seeking to determine whether or not this is an oil field worth the attention of capitalists. We should not at such a time as this experiment with ill-considered measures or put upon the state books laws that would retard the development of the state. The best way of promoting the prosperity of our own people is to deal justly with capital and immigrants invited to our state by the opportunities we can offer for investment and employment.

The Evening Post has said heretofore that it does not believe that the people would object to any increase in the tax rate required by a government economically administered. We believe that all the necessities of the case may be met by an increase in the rate of 50 cents. A simple bill to this effect would arouse no opposition, and would produce as much revenue as a more complicated and burdensome system involving inquisitorial process that Andrew Carnegie multiplication of detectives, perhaps be "a law as 'revenue agents'."

Let us have simplicity and directness

in our laws, and we then will have no need for a complicated system of collections.

WILL NEVER GIVE UP.

Rudyard Kipling seems to be the British W. J. Bryan. He has lately been "knocking" his own country in the war with the Boers, and now avers

he finds it cheering to learn that the Americans are having the same kind of trouble in the Philippines, which he ascribes to "the pig-headedness of the military and their habit of setting bulldozers to catch rabbits." In a letter Mr. Kipling wrote to a correspondent who had called his attention to American methods in the Philippines,

he said: "You cannot persuade a big country, full of prosperity, that it does not know everything. When it has cost a few thousand sons, a few thousands millions sterling, it may, if unusually enlightened, begin to understand that it has taken hold of the wrong

This is the age of the ad,

one of the most positive things that this is an age of

end of the stick. But that is a great deal to hope for and probably will not come in our time. I am very glad to learn, on your showing, that the American seems to be 'constitutedly' incapable of admitting himself wrong, and frankly putting himself in the wrong, because I did not like to think of the Americans as any more logical than ourselves. Of course what a new country wants is a higher toned despot of unlimited powers and absolute integrity, but as America and England are both free peoples we must just muddle along in the expensive, wasteful but choicely fashion that attends our methods."

This is very good logic, perhaps, and first class sarcasm, but as applied to American efforts to suppress rebellion in the Philippines it is somewhat awry. The United States does not propose to know everything, but it knows it has never yet met defeat, and it would be a bad idea to begin now with a few fractions savages on our own property. It is fully understood that a great sacrifice has been made, and may continue to be made, in suppressing the Philippines, but the government cannot afford to sacrifice principle now for the sake of saving either soldiers or money. It was mainly principle that the North and South fought over, and for which they sacrificed so many lives and so much property. Principle is worth just as much now as it was then. The American flag is supreme in the Philippines. It must float there as long as the islands are ours.

A GOOD MOVE.

Paducah's doctors deserve credit for their enterprise. They have always advocated a new and appropriate city hospital for Paducah, because there is no one in a better position to know the imperative need of one than the doctors. The present hospital is a reproach to a city of Paducah's pretensions. It is one that would have been inadequate twenty years ago. It is located in a very inconvenient spot, instead of near the center of the city, and has hardly room enough to properly accommodate one large family. The suggestion of the medical society embodied in the resolution it passed last night for a sanitarium to be established in a portion of the building and occupied only by pay patients is a good one and would make the new institution a source of revenue as well as a godsend to the poor. Paducah is now virtually a second class city, and should have a hospital in keeping with her progressiveness and importance, as well as with the constantly growing demands among the indigent. It is hoped the city council will take up the matter at once. It is not necessary to appoint committees to muddle along with it for a month or two. Every councilman ought to realize the need of a new city hospital without any investigation and begin immediately the effort to get it.

It seems that "Rev." Ed P. Crowe, the temperance lecturer who was fined in the police court here recently for drunkenness, has other weaknesses besides his love for booze. When he was fined here the Louisville papers contained brief mention of it, and yesterday's Times says: "Rev. Ed P. Crowe, formerly pastor of a Methodist church at Owensboro, who left the active ministry on account of an unfortunate love for strong drink, denies the statement in a recent dispatch from Paducah that he had been arrested and fined there for drunkenness. In a letter to relatives in Louisville he says of the charge:

"I was not drunk on the streets of Paducah and arrested there, but I did strike a man in self defense, and was fined $1 and costs, $7.65 all told, but it was the least fine, and the police judge gave this to me on my confession. I am not drinking a drop. In fact, I have just signed a contract to stump the state of Tennessee for the Prohibition party at $150 a month and my expenses. The people who employ me know the truth of the Paducah matter."

If Rev. Crowe wrote that he wrote something he knew was false. He was fined here for a plain, common drunk, and pleaded guilty, as the court records show.

The gates of Yeller park have been closed. The park has no apparent use, unless it is to pass through and save citizens a walk, and it ought to be kept open. If it is closed to keep out the numerous varieties of live stock

WHY STAY PALE?

A pity to see pale girls stay pale and dull when it is so easy to get Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion does a few things well. One of them is to give rich red blood to pale girls. There is a reason for it.

But perhaps you are more interested in results than in reasons.

The result of steady daily doses of Scott's Emulsion is an increase not only in the red color of the blood and in the appetite but in the good looks and bright manners which are the real charm of good health.

Scott's Emulsion is blood food.

Graceful Women

The scents of the heliotrope, violet or rose are as precious as the lively flowers which bear them, and while the life of flowers is brief and we can only enjoy them for a day, the beautiful woman gives the pleasure of her fragrance to us as a permanent blessing. The sweet, pure breath of the heliotrope is suggestive of innocence and health—the soft fragrance of a beautiful woman suggests to the senses purity, health and elegance; she is the emblem of civilization; she is indicative of a desire to please, an index of good taste, and an inspiring badge of gentility.

that make that vicinity a loafing place, it will have to be re-opened for the sake of consistency, if nothing else. If the city council can afford to allow cows to run at large throughout the city, on streets, lots and in people's yards, it certainly cannot deny them the same privileges in Yeller park. At any rate the park gates have been closed, and without the authority of the council. The county has nothing to do with the park, and neither has any county officer. The city took charge of it several years ago, and agreed to keep it up, and the county has since declined to have anything to do with it. It is hoped that the gates will be again opened, as it occasions great inconvenience to close them.

There will perhaps be little regret over the failure of the legislature to pass the capital appropriation bill. Nearly every move in that body has indicated that the intellectuality of the legislators is of a very inferior kind. It was believed that the time had come to move the state capital, and if new executive and legislative buildings were to be built, to build them in a centrally located city more fitted for imposing edifices. But the legislature in its wisdom didn't think so. It defeated the capital removal proposition, which would have simply referred the question to a vote of the people, and revealed the true sentiment throughout the state. Since the state capital cannot be changed, it is probable there will be general rejoicing that a million dollars was not appropriated to put up a lot of fine buildings in a two-by-four town like Frankfort.

It is presumed that all hope of street sprinkling, clean gutters and a healthful city this summer might as well be abandoned. The city council has plighted its troth to the Town Cow, and this puts an end to all our hopes. There will be few flowers, and there will be next to impossible to keep the streets and sidewalks clean. If the people elect country councilmen to office, however, they will simply have to put up with a country town.

Hereafter when any of the city authorities desire information on any profound subject they have only to send to Jackson, Tenn., for it. Jackson is such a large, up-to-date city, and so far ahead of other cities it makes a model place to emulate.

General Hughes has concluded from his observations that two years is as much as a soldier should be required to spend in the Philippines. A great deal less than that would suffice for most people.

THE GERMS OF LA GRIPPE ARE CONVEYED THROUGH THE ATMOSPHERE.

No one can escape the la grippe germ because when an epidemic of the disease is prevailing the air is laden with it.

THE SUN'S PUZZLE PICTURE.

WHERE IS MY BOSS?

OUR POSTAGE STAMPS

A New Series is to Be Issued by the Government.

President Harrison's Picture Will Be Placed on a Thirteen Cent Stamp—President McKinley's Portrait.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT THE ISSUE

A new series of postage stamps is now being designed and all stamps will be entirely new.

The question of a new series was discussed following the death of President McKinley, and it was thought that when the new set was ordered the portrait of President McKinley would surely adorn one of the denominations.

The department, however, concluded to place the portrait of the late President upon a new postal card of unique design, and this removed him from the list.

However, a new face will appear, that of President Harrison, on a new denomination—a 13 cent stamp. There will practically be no demand for a stamp of this value for domestic use, but for foreign use 13 cents represents the cost of sending a registered letter not more than one-half ounce to any country within the postal union.

Only one other change will be made. Commodore Perry, whose face has adorned the 90 cent value from 1870 down to 1894 and the $1 from 1895 to the present date, will be superseded upon the $1 denomination by another famous sea-fighter, Admiral Farragut.

Commodore Perry is disappearing permanently. The present set is as follows: 1 cent, green, face of Franklin; 2 cent, purple, face of Washington; 3 cent, purple, face of Jackson; 4 cent, dark brown, face of Lincoln; 5 cent, chocolate, face of Grant; 6 cent, red-brown, face of Garfield; 8 cent, mauve, face of Sherman; 10 cent, face of Webster; 15 cent, dark blue, face of Clay; 50 cent orange, face of Jefferson; $1, black, face of Perry; $5, sapphire, face of Madison; $5, dark green, face of Marshall.

The present series of postage stamps has been in continuous use for just twelve years, which is much longer than the life of the ordinary series. It is proposed that everything in connection with the series will be new. New designs for borders will be drawn, new shades of color employed and the new stamps may be of different size and shape. Under the portrait will be the name of the subject, with the date of birth and death. The 10 cent special delivery stamp will be slightly changed in design, and the color will be orange instead of blue.

It is interesting to note that since 1861 but two presidents have not been honored by placing their portraits upon a postage stamp, Johnson, and Arthur; Cleveland, still living, not being eligible. It is not unlikely that when another new design for postal cards shall be adopted, and these designs change often, President McKinley will take a place upon a postage stamp, possibly superseding Sherman on the eight or Webster on the 10 cent.

A $50,000 VASE.

Smashed by a Drunken Man, But Put Together Again.

One of the famous and popular exhibits in the British museum is the unique Portland vase. About an inch high, made of glass of a wonderfully deep blue, ornamented in relief with a series of figures of opaque white glass, it was found in a marble sarcophagus under the Monte del Grano, some two and a half miles from Rome on the way to Frascati. For a long time it was the chief ornament of the great Barberini palace at Rome, but toward the end of the eighteenth century it was bought by Sir William Hamilton, who in turn sold it to the Duchess of Portland in 1785, and by the Duke of Portland it was deposited in the British museum in 1810. The museum did not then occupy its present building, and in 1845, while it was still in Montague house, the vase was broken by an act of vandalism. A man named William Lloyd, who was employed in the museum, got drunk one day in February of that year, and, picking up a Babylonian vase which lay on the ground, he hurled it at the vase, which was placed under a glass case. There was a crash, and the case and the vase fell shattered to the ground. The museum authorities approached the Duke of Portland with a view to prosecuting the man, but for reasons of his own, the duke refused to appear, and the only thing the museum could do was to bring the culprit before a magistrate on a charge of wantonly breaking the glass case. The magistrate fined him a couple of pounds, and the fine was considerably paid by an old lady with more sympathy than sense, so that the man got off scot free. The pieces were put together again, and perhaps the romance which has thus clustered around the vase may have enhanced its value. It is estimated to be worth no less than £10,000.—London Strand Magazine.

It is not surprising that more people live to be over 100 years old in warm climates than in the higher latitudes. The German Empire, with 55,000,000 inhabitants, has 778 centenarians; France, with 40,000,000, has 213. England has only 146, and Scotland 46. Sweden has 19, Norway 23, Belgium 5, Denmark 2, Spain 41, and Switzerland none. Servia, with a population of 2,250,000, has 575 people over 100 years old. It is claimed that the oldest living person, one Iprano Cotrim, living in Rio de Janeiro, is 150 years old.

Butterflies Made to Order. M. Standfuss of Zurich has taken up the old experiments of Weissmann on the variations in butterflies produced by temperature acting on the chrysalis. He finds that the chrysalis, according to the temperature to which they are exposed, have given birth to butterflies not of the kind they are derived from, but kinds belonging to countries far from Zurich. Thus, pupae of the Vanessa urtica, which is common in Switzerland, when kept at a temperature of four to six degrees centigrade, produced the Vanessa polia, a species proper to Lapland. Others of the same sort kept at 37 to 39 degrees centigrade produced the Ichneutes, found only in Sardinia and Corsica. A still higher temperature produced Ichneutes, found sometimes in temperate regions during hot summers. Other chrysalids gave birth to entirely new species. The general result is, that cold or heat produces butterflies found in cold or hot countries.

AT "THE KENTUCKY."

There was a small but appreciative audience at The Kentucky last evening to enjoy the song recital by Miss Mary Linck, assisted by Mrs. Marie Hoover Ellis. Miss Linck is an Evansville girl of attractive personality, and has a voice of wide range, great power and brilliancy, and exceptional culture. She greatly charmed her hearers last night by her exquisite singing and fully demonstrated her ability. Miss Linck has sung in grand opera, and it is seldom Paduchans have an opportunity to hear such fine music. Mrs. Ellis is a fine pianist of artistic taste and faultless execution. It is regretted that more were not out to enjoy the entertainment. The following program was rendered:

Piano solo—
a. Revolutionary Etude—"Chopin."
b. "Air de Ballet"—Chaminade.
Song—"Hosanna"—Granier.

a. Romance, "When all was Young," from Faust—"Gounod."
b. Aria "O don Fatale," from "Don Carlos"—Verdi.

Piano solo—Polonaise from "Le Bal"—Rubenstein.
a. Ballad—"Go and Forget"—Adams.

b. Song—"O, Hear the Wild Wind Blow"—Mottet.
a. Southern Melody, "Mighty Lak a Rose"—Nevin.

b. Recitation and Aria—"Thou Monstrous Fiend" from "Fidelio"—Beethoven.
Piano solo, "Rustle of Spring"—Sinding.

THE CONDUCTOR WAS AN EX-TAR.

Passengers on a Brooklyn bridge trolley car were greatly amused the other day at the antics of their conductor, who had been an old sailor and was going through some strange performances on the rear platform yet, although he had been ringing up fares for several years. The rejuvenated sailor said: "I had a fine old time, 'cul-tur' ropes when I had a berth on the three-sky-sail-yarder Stanhope. I takes on a 'alyard like this,' he continued, grabbing the trolley rope and pulling until the motorman rang for power. Before he was through with his exhibition of prowess the brake had been forward deck and the trolley as a long boat swung from its davits. Just then, says the New York Mail and Express, the Brooklyn end of the bridge was reached and the man resumed his role of ordinary conductor.
